Women and Gender Sensitization Action Plan

GPCET is a community that prioritizes respect for everyone, placing value on individual abilities rather than backgrounds. Committed to making a positive impact on people's lives, we stand as pioneers in providing equal opportunities in education and employment. As a co-educational institution, our college has earned a reputation in the local community as a "safe and secure" haven for women students, many of whom are the first in their families to pursue higher education. Our success in fostering gender equality among both students and staff, as well as ensuring high retention rates, is attributed to a range of deliberate actions and initiatives detailed below.

S.NO	Key Areas	Proposed Action Plan
1.	Leadership commitment for Women and Gender Sensitization	a) Establishment of the Women and Gender Sensitization Committee with the aim of fostering awareness and promoting gender equality. b) Enhancement of efforts to recruit more women employees to address gender imbalances and empower them to play pivotal roles in high-level decision-making processes.
2.	Infrastructure	a) Guaranteeing the safety and security of students on campus. b) Assessing the effectiveness of the Women Gender Sensitization Committee (WGSC). c) Implementing emergency ambulance services and enhancing fire safety measures. d) Establishing a dedicated common room for female students.
3.	GPCET Eminent Women's Activity	a) Challenging and transforming societal stereotypes regarding gender imbalance. b) Organizing extracurricular activities such as sports and cultural programs to raise awareness about gender equality.
4.	Enhancing Awareness and Aspirants	a) Raising awareness among females about various health and societal issues concerning women. b) Organizing events and programs, such as Women's Day celebrations and traditional day. c) Conducting activities to help students realize their full potential.

COUNSELLING

The Counseling Cell at GPCET College is dedicated to fostering the personal well-being of students through the guidance of trained counselors. The goal is to address emotional and psychological issues within the student community, promoting a healthy mind and body. The role of the counselor involves providing confidential and non-judgmental support, assisting students in becoming productive and well-adjusted adults.

Key features of the Counseling Cell include:

Diverse Support: Addressing personal, emotional, social, family, peer, academic, and sexual issues through individual or group counseling.

Comprehensive Development: Guiding students in academic goals, social and personality development, career goals, and enhancing interpersonal skills.

Role of Counselor: Trained counselors assess, diagnose, and treat students dealing with academic stress, anxiety, depression, and social addictions.

Green Books Policy: Each class is divided into groups, with a faculty member assigned as a counselor. Regular counseling sessions and progress tracking are maintained in Green books from the first semester until the last.

Objectives of the Counseling Cell:

Problem Solving: Assist students in resolving personal, educational, social, and psychological problems.

Mental Health Awareness: Create awareness about mental health issues among students.

Faculty Motivation: Motivate faculty to actively participate in counseling activities.

Roles and Responsibilities:

Personal Problem Resolution: Conduct individual counseling sessions to address students' personal issues.

Self-Esteem Enhancement: Boost the self-esteem of students with weaknesses or disabilities.

Learning Disabilities: Diagnose and help students overcome learning disabilities.

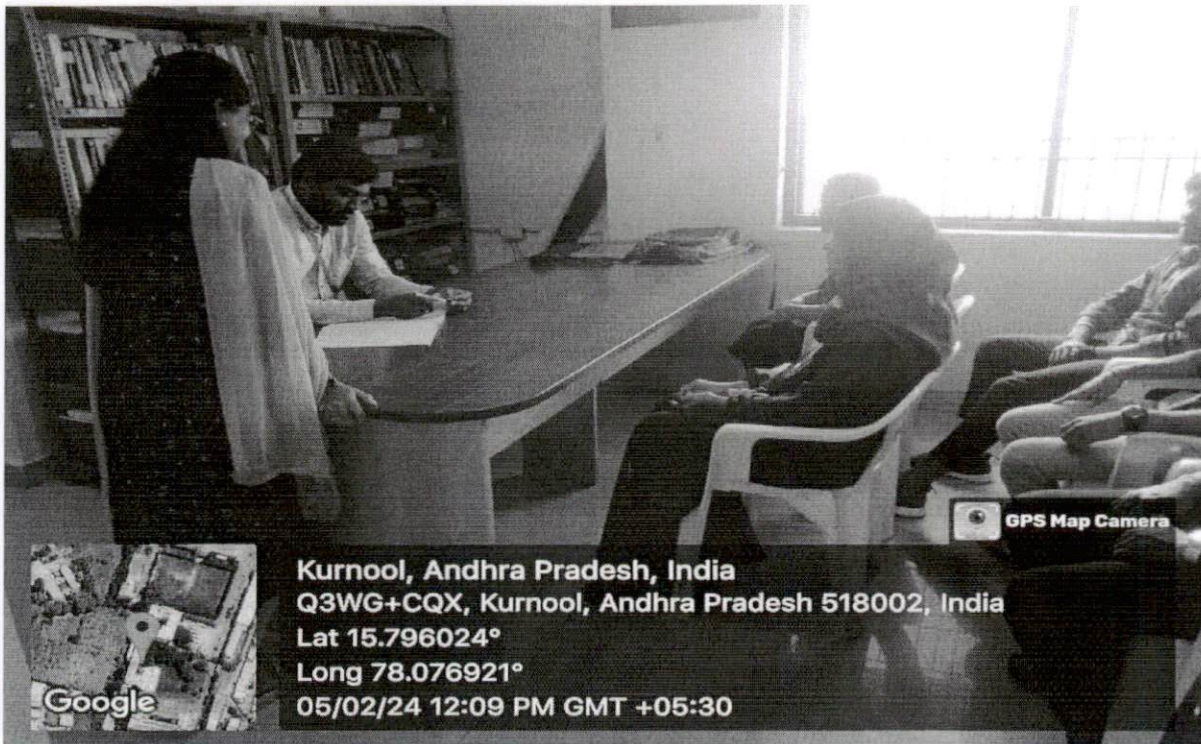

Exam Stress Management: Assist students in managing stress and anxiety related to exams.

Training Programs: Implement training programs on counseling skills for teachers and staff.

Parental Communication: Inform parents about students' psychological misconduct.

The Counseling Cell aims to facilitate positive behavior changes, improve social relationships, enhance decision-making skills, and help students realize their potential while effectively coping with challenges
